TuftsMedicine

EpicEdge Tips & Tricks

Pain Assessment Flowsheets Now Have Several Default Rows

March 2023

There are now several default items that will automatically show in the Flowsheets when documenting any type of pain assessment. These items should be completed if the patient has any pain. The additional pain assessments can still be selected and documented as you normally would.

	Flowsheets		Chart Review Synopsis Results Review Flo
Matthew Test Male, 63 y.o., 1/1/1960			Avatar → mt Add C ol ntn insert Col < Data Complex Assessment Daily Cares/Safety	-		Filed 🚦 Reg Doc 💽 Gr	aph 🝷 🗖 Go to Date	Responsi	gie C Refrest	h 📑 Chart Correc	tion - 🌶	Macro Man
MRN: 34699854 Bed: HPH01-A Code: Assume Full (no ACP docs)	C Search (Alt+C Hide All VITAL SIGNS Vital Signs OXYGEN	Comma) Show All	Accordion Expanded View All	Admission (Current 3/20/2023 0900		tm 5m	10m 15m 30m 1	h 2h 4h 8	h 24h Interv	al Start: 0700 Re:	et Now	3/20/23 0 Temp Commer
COVID-19: Unknown Isolation: None	PAIN	N ×	Temp Temp Source Pulse									Mins/ Max
Bernice Burkarth, MD Attending	OBSERVATIONS	₩ *	Heart Rate Source Resp BP									War War Min
Allergies: Not on File ADMITTED: TODAY			MAP (mmHg) BP Location									Flows
Patient Class: Hospice - Inpatient No active principal problem			Patient Position Oxygen Therapy
Height: 177.8 cm Last Wt: 61.2 kg >7 days BMI: —			SpO2 Patient Activity During SpO2 Measurement									,
5mi. —			Pain Assessment
			Pain Score Pain Location Pain Colation Pain Colation Pain Radialing Towards Pain Perquency Pain Onset Clinical Progression Patient's Stated Pain Goal Patient's Stated Pain Score Pain Interventions Height and Weight Height and Meight			New Build Layout
0			Height Method Weight Weight Method								~	